

Providing relief in South Sudan

Since December, 2013, hundreds of thousands of people have been displaced by fighting in South Sudan. MCC is responding to the crisis with emergency food programs and material resources for people who have fled to other parts of South Sudan or refugee camps in Kenya and Ethiopia. Beyond meeting basic emergency needs, MCC is continuing to support education, peacebuilding and agriculture projects in South Sudan.

Food purchased by MCC, through its partner Sudanese Relief and Development Agency, is unloaded in Awerial County, South Sudan. MCC provided supplementary food for 7,539 children displaced by the conflict (MCC Photo, Brendan Tuttle, 2014).

Through the TriState Relief Sale/ Penny Power project, you can help provide:

- Three days of prepared meals for new arrivals to refugee camps
- Nutritious supplementary food to children, new and expecting mothers, seniors and people with disabilities or illness in refugee camps.
- Canned meat, relief and hygiene kits, and blankets to refugee camps
- Ongoing support for MCC's continuing projects in education, peacebuilding and agriculture

Children wait in line for a food distribution at an Internally Displaced Persons camp in Aerial County carried out by the Sudanese Relief and Development Agency (SUDRA), supported by MCC (MCC Photo/Simon Mikanipare, 2014).
